

K-LOVE serves me as a resident of the local community by providing outstanding music and information about local events that are taking place. K-LOVE is my main source for all of the above and it would impact me significantly if it were displaced by an LPFM broadcaster. K-LOVE serves the public well and should be maintained.